NDF CYBER DEFENSE UNIT · INCIDENT SUMMARY

Incident number	NDF-CDU-031
Date	D−4
Period	D−9 to D−4 (five days)
Systems targeted	National power grid control network; the communications backbone linking the early-warning radars to the Patriot batteries
Impact	None. No systems disrupted.
Rating	B2

1. What happened. The unit detected repeated intrusion attempts against both networks over five days.

2. Activity. The attempts look like reconnaissance: the intruders mapped the networks but did not attack them.

3. Attribution. The tools and infrastructure match a group previously linked to the Cosmopolis government. Attribution confidence: moderate.

4. Assessment. Someone is preparing options against our command and control and our infrastructure.

5. Actions taken. Affected access points closed. Monitoring increased on both networks.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

FROM: Minister of the Interior

SUBJECT: Threat of a Cosmopolis Airborne Landing

1. Assessment. The ministry assesses that an airborne landing on the Omak coast is likely within 72 hours.
2. Basis.
    a. Port workers on Camas report C-17 transports unloading around the clock. One worker was told that "three thousand paratroopers" are coming.
    b. Cosmopolis has refused to rule out ground action.
3. Recommendation. Move the armored brigades to the beaches.

Exiled President: "Omak Will Vote Again, Freely"

CAPITAL CITY — Omak's ousted president told supporters here on Sunday that he would be "home in Fortune Harbor before the harvest." He called for new, internationally supervised elections in Omak.

Separately, a group of Cosmopolis legislators introduced the Omak Democracy Restoration Act. The bill would fund an election in Omak "once the coup government steps aside."

COSMOPOLIS FOREIGN MINISTRY · DAILY PRESS BRIEFING (monitored) · D–5

Excerpt. Spokesperson's response to a question about the Strait.

Spokesperson: Freedom of navigation through the Strait of Great Fortune is not negotiable. The Strait will be open to all shipping.

And let me be clear: Cosmopolis will regard any Asotin military presence in Omak as a threat to regional peace. Arms deliveries are bad enough. Asotin troops would be unacceptable.

BI-10 · Letter from the Asotin Foreign Minister

Rating: A1 · Date: D−10 · Delivered privately by the Asotin ambassador.

Dear Mr. President,

Asotin stands with the people of Omak. We will continue to provide arms and intelligence without interruption.

Further assistance will be considered as circumstances warrant, including if the aggressor attacks Asotin's lawful trade, or if the international community turns firmly against the aggressor.

Asotin does not seek a war with Cosmopolis.

Sincerely,

Foreign Minister of Asotin
